COURSE OUTLINE Semester 2, 2026

Course Title: 9 Drawing and Printmaking

Faculty: The Arts

Faculty Head: Jo Hopman

Description of Course

Students explore a range of techniques within the art mediums of Drawing and Printmaking. Within drawing, students focus on developing specific drawing techniques while using graphite, charcoal and soft and oil pastel. In printmaking students explore a range of techniques including printing in relief (lino printing) and intaglio (drypoint etching) to create personalised print editions of their work. Students refine their techniques for independent art-making while creating both minor and major works. Art appreciation and analysis are integral components to the students artmaking practice, with students being exposed to both historical and contemporary works, including First Nations artists.
